

ENGLAND.

Progress of the Elections—The Radical Reformers in Triumph in Birmingham—Conservative Gain—Irish Home Rulers in Retreat—Bullion from the Bank.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Midnight. The nomination and election of members of Parliament commenced to-day.

Messrs. Bright, Dixon and Muntz, the former members, are returned from Birmingham without opposition.

Mr. Kerlake is returned from Huntingdon and Colonel Child, a conservative, from Frome. The liberals did not attempt to contest the latter borough, which has been represented for the last five years by Mr. Thomas Hughes.

SLIGHT GAIN FOR THE CONSERVATIVES. Despatches received up to this hour show that seven liberals and ten conservatives have been returned, the conservatives gaining one member at Frome.

IRISH HOME RULERS IN DISMAYED RETREAT. Dr. Hutts has retired from the contest of Manchester and Mr. Nolan from that of Greenwich.

BULLION FROM THE BANK. The amount of bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance to-day is £243,000.

WEATHER REPORT. The weather throughout England to-day is fair.

GERMANY.

Prest Pronouncement on the Duty of Friendly Powers.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Berlin, Jan. 30, 1874. The North German Gazette, alluding to the sympathy manifested in Belgium for the German Ultramontanes, declares that "every government is bound to check the disposition of its subjects to participate in revolutionary attempts against a friendly Power."

NAVAL EVOLUTIONS. Opening of the Exercises at Key West Yesterday—General Debarbation and Sham Fight—Admirable Behavior of Officers and Men—Dress Parade of the Gallant Marines to-day.

KEY WEST, Fla., Jan. 30, 1874. The preliminary exercises of the naval drill began to-day.

Admiral Case having issued a general order that a general landing and sham fight should occur, the boats of the Florida, Canandaigua, Wachusett, Shenandoah and Wyoming were taken out to sea this afternoon by the Fortune and the boats of the Franklin, Washburn, Lancaster and Kansas by the Florida.

On signal they started and were towed to the beach outside Fort Taylor, where a landing was effected, covered by howitzers. Seventeen hundred men disembarked with twelve howitzers and 400 Gatling guns. Five battalions and two batteries landed. Commander Parker commanded the howitzers and the Florida acted as Adjutant General. The howitzers and boats formed in echelon on the beach and opened fire.

FORMING IN SKIRMISH LINE. The fifth battalion, Lieutenant Bradford, of the Washburn, commanding, landed and deployed as skirmishers.

As soon as the main body of infantry had landed, the fifth battalion was formed and skirmishers were called in for reserve, while battalions were advanced in line, with artillery on the flanks. A general fire was opened along the entire line.

AFTER MAINTAINING A BRISK FIRE for some time the artillery of the right wing was thrown forward in support, when the advance line opened fire. Three battalions and one battery were advanced and deployed into line.

THE CHARGE. A general advance was then ordered in double quick time and they took a new position near the beach, where your correspondent was stationed.

THE EXERCISES concluded with a brigade dress parade, after which the whole force again embarked.

THE OFFICERS and men behaved admirably. Regular land troops could not have done better than these marines.

There will be a full dress parade of all the Marines on shore to-morrow, under Colonel Haywood acting as commanding officer.

PORTSMOUTH NAVY YARD. Arrival of the Powhatan, from Key West, with Sick and Discharged Men on Board—The Triumphant from Washington—The Frolic in the Dry Dock.

PORTSMOUTH, Va., Jan. 30, 1874. The United States steamer Powhatan, J. C. Beaumont, commanding, arrived at the Navy Yard here from Key West, bringing 76 sick men and 106 discharged sailors. The invalids were transferred to the Naval Hospital for treatment and the discharged were placed on board the receiving ship New Hampshire. The Powhatan coals at the Yard, receives some slight repairs, such as calking the berth deck, &c., and awaits orders. She brought as passengers Lieutenant P. G. Hyde, Lieutenant Nathan B. Barnes, Midshipman C. L. Broome, First Assistant Engineer B. C. Gowing and Saltmaker William H. Howells, one or two of whom have been condemned by medical boards as incapacitated for active service.

THE STEAMER Triana, Captain L. G. Cook, arrived from Washington to-day with fifty-seven marines, musicians and other commissioned officers, all of whom were transferred to the barracks of this station, to be sent to Key West to supply the vessels now at that point. The Triana also brought ordnance and construction stores.

THE STEAMER Frolic was by special orders taken into the dry dock to-day and will be repaired. She will be coaled to-morrow and report for orders to Washington.

THE STEAMER shops in the yard were suspended to-day, and will be to-morrow, for the want of funds.

PITTSBURGH CELESTIALS AT WAR. The Pig-Tailed Cattle Attack Ah Poy, an Overseer—Attacking the Police.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 30, 1874. A serious affray occurred at Beaver Falls to-day among the Chinamen employed in the cutlery works at that place. As Ah Poy, the overseer and interpreter, was passing through the works, he was attacked by the Chinese workmen with the determination of killing him. He escaped by passing through the office, and the attempt to follow them was met by the police, whom they attacked with desperation, throwing knives, forks, pieces of iron and anything they could find. The police fought them some time without weapons, when they finally secured clubs and forced the workmen to retreat, wounding ten or twelve, and killing seriously. The trouble arose from the belief that Ah Poy had been making a proper disposition of their funds entrusted to him.

JAY COOKE & CO. An Order by Judge Cadwalader as to Realizing and Closing the Estate.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30, 1874. In the matter of the bankruptcy of Jay Cooke & Co. Judge Cadwalader to-day made the following order:

The report and certificate of register filed yesterday having been considered, it is ordered that the same, and the resolution of creditors reported therewith, be and it is further ordered that the Court, whereupon the estate of the bankrupts to the creditors so nominated, be and it is further ordered that the Court, whereupon the settlement of his accounts in the Court is of opinion that the same should be closed before the new relation of trustee can be made.

It is further ordered that the said accounts be filed in the Court on November 20th next, and that Thomas A. Storey, of Philadelphia, be and it is further ordered that the Court, whereupon the settlement of his accounts in the Court is of opinion that the same should be closed before the new relation of trustee can be made.

GOVERNOR WYTHE'S SUCCESSOR IN MARYLAND. ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 30, 1874. The democratic caucus to-night nominated Mr. J. B. Groome, of Cecil county, for Governor for the balance of the term of Governor Wythe, who has resigned, his resignation to take effect on March 4th next.

AMUSEMENTS.

English Opera—"Bohemian Girl."

Messieurs de Carlotta, the tenor and baritone portions of the Kellogg English opera troupe, were in good lyric condition last night, and, for the first time in this city, essayed the roles of Thaddeus and Count Arnheim in Balfe's most popular opera, "The Bohemian Girl." It is unnecessary to allude to the previous impersonations of the roles of Arline and the Gypsy Queen by Miss Kellogg and Mrs. Segun, further than to say that last evening they were as attractive as ever and enclosures seemed to be the rule, not the exception. Mr. Mass, with his light, flexible, well trained tenor voice, gave significance to the songs, "When other Lips," and "The Fair Land of Poland," especially the latter, which strains the voice to a degree that calls forth vocal and histrionic qualities of no mean standard. As a tenor in English opera we can recall in this city only the hands of Mr. Karl as an equal of Mr. Mass. Mr. Carlotta is an admirable baritone; not perhaps gifted with the sonority of Louis Chabell, but equally versed in the talent of giving effect to the grand aria of Balfe's popular opera, "The Heart Sore Down." The performance was far superior to the first production of the opera on Saturday last, and Mr. Howard held the chorus and orchestra in hand as a satisfactory addition to the efforts of the leading artists. The house was literally crowded from parquette to parquette. The evening's receipts were $1,000.

When "standing room only" hung out on the outer walls of the New York Academy of Music night after night the financial success of the season is indisputable. So far as English opera attained such a success in this city. The season closes with a matinee of "Faust" this afternoon.

Musical and Dramatic Notes. Miss Katharine Rogers is meeting with success in California.

Mr. E. A. Sothern is to appear at the Brooklyn Park Theatre during next week.

Dr. Von Bilow, who comes to this country in the fall as a pianist, is a son-in-law of the Abbe Liszt. Glimore, of Boston Jubilee fame, has a big concert to-night at the Twenty-second regiment armory.

Schiller's tragedy, "The Bride of Messina," has been done into music by Mr. Bonawitz, pianist, and was brought out in Philadelphia on the 20th inst. with great success.

Wagner's quixotic idea of a four night opera in a theatre specially built for the purpose, at Hainburg, Bavaria, is likely to fall to the ground. It is again postponed for a year, or more properly, sine die.

Miss Neilson, the distinguished actress, who has been for a long time invalided at St. Augustine, Fla., will be able to appear at the California Theatre, San Francisco, in a short time, and will commence an engagement at Booth's Theatre on April 20.

Anna Pavlova scores the Loco-Di Murska season in this city most unmercifully. These two artists receive many encomiums, but the rest of the company have been hissed, lampooned, caricatured and otherwise acquainted with popular displeasure.

Mr. Edwin Booth has drawn immense houses to the Brooklyn Theatre throughout the week. He has played his usual round of tragic parts, beginning with Hamlet. He is to be followed next week by Mrs. Bowers and Mr. J. C. McDuff, who are prime favorites in Brooklyn, where they have not played for several years. During their stay the Brooklyn Theatre has been thronged.

Mr. Conway's company will perform in Jersey City.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb delivered a lecture last evening at Steinway Hall. The subject was the "Power of the Press." It was a very pleasant lecture. Mrs. Webb seems to know all about the press, and in her lecture she presents her personal views. The "Power of the Press," as suggested by the eloquent lady, is supreme. It makes and un-makes men and statesmen. It is a power that should be recognized, and yet that power was liable to be abused. Mrs. Webb has a fine delivery.

A RAILROAD ROBBER CONVICTED. The First of a Formidable Gang of Thieves Sent to the Penitentiary for Ten Years in Illinois.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30, 1874. The proceedings in the Criminal Court in this city, which have just resulted in the conviction of Mike Jones, alias M. H. McHenry, and his sentence to the Penitentiary for ten years, have developed one of the most extensive and stupendous schemes of robbery ever discovered in the United States. The band, of which Jones was only an ordinary member, has directed its attention chiefly to railroad lines, particularly to the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, and to the large dry goods stores of this city, Newburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis. Business men have taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now that the leaders may also be convicted, though they are backed by money and legal talent. Jones, although but twenty years old, has already served one term at Joliet. There are more indictments against him in connection with the same notorious business. His arrest, trial and conviction are regarded as important achievements every way, and great credit is due to Mr. W. W. Chandler, agent of the Star Union line, who, in the destruction of freight trains and of personal violence, has continued his efforts with the same vigor and determination. He has been taken great interest in this case, and are encouraged by this prompt verdict to hope now